BitMari is a Pan African Bitcoin platform that provides swift, secure transnational financial transactions. In an effort to accelerate the understanding and adoption of Bitcoin, Bitmari has implemented an African indigenous languages feature that allows users to communicate in languages such as Shona, Ndebele, Wolof, Swahili among others. The BitMari Bitcoin Wallet is available for free download on iOS and Android.

ZIMBABWE WOMEN FARMERS ACCELERATOR

BitMari, has launched the first ever Bitcoin accelerator for women farmers in Africa. The accelerator targets Zimbabwean women farmers and is raising funds to equip them with inputs and irrigation pumps. The “Zimbabwe Women Farmers Accelerator” will leverage the power of Bitcoin to hasten farming processes, develop farming enterprises and promote higher yields.
